SENSATIONAL RUMORS AFLOAT IN MEXICO CITY

(BULLETIN.)

Mexico City, Dec. 1.—Provisional President Huerta, whose disappearance from the federal capital gave rise to many rumors today, returned this afternoon. He had been out viewing a farm near the capital.

Huerta Has Only Been On Drunk.

(By United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Mexico City, Dec. 1.—General Huerta has not gone to Vera Cruz, as stated in irresponsible rumors sent from here today. He was seen here today. Huerta has been drinking very heavily of late and has not been able to attend affairs of state. Sunday he broke an engagement to meet Nelson O Shaughnessy, the American representative, and thus far no explanation of this breach of diplomatic etiquette has been made.

Another Report Says Huerta is Dead.

Mexico City, Dec. 1. Persistent rumors spread through Mexico City today that General Huerta was dead. Nothing was discovered to verify the report. Those familiar with Huerta's habits of late surmise that he is only intoxicated and they discredited

SALOON MEN LOSE APPEAL ON LICENSES

Toledo, O., Dec. 1.—If the Ohio liquor license law is valid, rejected applicants cannot complain inasmuch as the liquor license commissioners are to determine to whom licenses are to be issued.

If the law is not valid the applicant cannot complain because there is no law. This was the decision of the Lucas county court of appeals on the petitions of a rejected saloonist asking the commissioners to grant him a license. It was the first decision by an appelate court and was looked upon as an important one.

INDIANAPOLIS TEAMSTERS GO ON STRIKE, RIOTING FEARED

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 1—There were no deliveries of food, groceries, coal and practically all merchandise anywhere in Indianapolis today as the result of the strike of about 3000 union teamsters and chauffeurs which was called last midnight.

Prepared for riots a reorganized police force augumented by 500 leading business and professional men who have been armed and sworn in as deputies, were ready to assist in moving non union wagons.

A proclamation by Mayor Wallace today warns the public that the police would shoot to kill if mobs destroyed property as they did in the recent street car strike.

One thousand strike breakers were held in readiness today by employers. At the employers' office today thousands of rifles were held ready for use.

The temper of both sides indicates a conflict.

The union men permitted mail wagons, milk wagons and certain other wagons to operate unmolested.

Mayor Wallace established headquarters at the police station and said he would take personal charge of the police department until the strike of the union teamsters and chauffeurs is settled. He said he had 100 mounted policemen and 400 patrolmen and expected to be able to handle the situation with assistance from the state.

Women trade unionists dragged non union teamsters off their wagons in two instances today and police used their clubs freely to clear a path for nonunion teams through mobs of men and boys who yelled "scabs".

There was not much disorder today although four women and eight men were arrested on charges of inciting to riot. No attempt is being made to settle the strike, both sides having settled down to a finish fight.

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 1.—Disorder but no serious rioting resulted today from the strike of teamsters and chauffeurs which started last night. Many wagons were on the street but Organizer T. L. Farrell, of the union, declared all would be stopped by nightfall. The police made a number of arrests and used their clubs freely in keeping the strikers on the move. Four girls, garment workers, were among those arrested. The girls and a number of others had surrounded a laundry wagon and prevented it from moving until the police arrived. They were released on a small bond.

All the men arrested were held on $1000 bond.

Becker Appeal Argued

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 1.—That a conspiracy which found its support in perjured testimony sent Former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker to the Sing Sing death house for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, attorneys argued today in the court of appeals. Justice Hisco denied Becker a new trial and District Attorney Whitman, who prosecuted the case, were criticised severely. Becker's counsel appealed from the order denying their motion for a new trial and asked for a reversal of judgment. [illegible]

REGULAR SESSION OF CONGRESS USHERED IN

Washington, Dec. 1.—A new session of congress, the second since President Wilson took office, began work today at noon. Vice President Marshall as the clock hour arrived, declared the session adjourned "without day" and in the next breath announced that congress had assembled in accordance with the constitution and informally marked the speaker in the house.

Washington, Dec. 1.—Congress today settled down to the second stage of what promises to be the longest continuous session in its history.

The regular December session following with but a breath upon the heels of the long extra session that has run since April, brought to tired lawmakers today many new problems and the prospect of steady work for many months.

There was little formality about the ushering in of the new congress at noon. Its advent was signaled by the fall of the gavel in each house with the announcement of the presiding officers that the second session of the 63rd Congress had begun.

President Wilson will read his first general message to congress at a joint session of the two houses at 12 o'clock Tuesday and [illegible]

Fires were kept burning with red pepper and sulphur in an attempt to suffocate the slayer. Sunday deputies braved the slayer's bullets to bring out the bodies of two of his victims.

STATE INSTITUTIONS RUN EXTRAVAGANTLY SAYS STATE AUDITOR

Columbus, O., Dec. 1.—State Auditor A. V. Donahey today announced that he would appoint special inspectors to investigate charges of high living by officials and employes of state institutions.

"I am astounded by revelations made to me," Donahey said. "Information is available that in the post in one state institution it cost more to feed the 12 officers of the institution than it did to feed the 800 insane patients. In this institution there were 200 employes. The cost of their food was also less than that of the 12 officers. I have every reason to believe that officers and employes in our institutions are at the present time indulging in high living.

"Our recent investigation of the Akron home discloses $3.00 per case for appollinaris water; $3.00 per half a dozen for artichokes, $1.50 to $3.00 for cauliflower; $1.50 per dozen for cucumbers in winter time and $1.50 for cherries and other expensive luxuries."

Donahey said he would recommend that every one of the 3,039 state employes be made to pay their own board.

In a statement to Gov. Cox, Donahey said:

"Institutions have been sumptuous public inns for lavish entertainment of friends and relatives of far management. Frequently in the past luxurious living of employes and officers, particularly the latter, has constituted an unduly large item of expense for maintenance."

DECISIONS BY THE SUPREME COURT

Washington, Dec. 1. The right of publishers to maintain arbitrary prices on copyright books was denied today by the supreme court.

The maximum freight law was in effect approved by the supreme court in the test suit brought by the L. & N. against the state of Kentucky. The court reaffirmed the right of states to create railroad commissions with power to fix intra-state rates, according to the Minnesota rate decision. The court did not declare the law valid but affirmed the decision of the lower court.

The Merchants case challenging the Kentucky state railroad commission to fix reasonable rates for intrastate business was held valid. The L. & N. contended that the rate effected largely grain shipped from Ohio, Indiana and Illinois to Kentucky and had the effect of lowering interstate rates.

Orders of the Interstate Commerce Commission establishing compulsory system of railroad accounts was today upheld by the supreme court.

The Illinois Child Labor law was declared valid today by the supreme court which approved the minimum age limit of 16 years.

The decision was given in the case of Arthur Beauchamp, 15, who recovered a verdict of $1500 from the Sturges and Burn Manufacturing Co. for having his hand lacerated in a press. The company on the ground that the boy represented that he was more than 16 and being more than 14, should be held responsible for his statement. The court held the company employed him at its peril.

$2000 fines imposed on the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad in the federal court at Buffalo for violation of the "commodity clause" of the Interstate Commerce Commission act was affirmed today by the supreme court. The railroad transported hay between interstate points to be sold by a company owning the road making a double collection.

BURTON HAS BANK BILL

Washington, Dec. 1.—Senator Burton introduced a bill today for a central bank to be owned by the public and operated by the government with 12 branches. Its powers would be similar to those vested in the regional banks.

GOING SOME!

Jefferson, Indiana, Dec. 1. —A magistrate here introduced Mrs Laura Blythe, 26 ,of this city to William B. Moran, 38, of Danville, Ky. Twenty minutes later he married them. Moran came here to marry another girl but she married another man first.

I see by th' papers that we're not goin' t' get that new weather station which there's been so much talk about. Guess it's just as well. # Poor Housing Made 90 Percent of Delinquents

That 90 per cent of the 175 dlinquency cases in the probate court during the past twelve months came from neighborhoods where the housing conditions are bad, and that 90 per cent of the 525 cases of truancy in the city schools during the last school year came from the same neighborhoods, were strong points in the address of Rev. A. F. Hughes at Bigelow church last night. Continuing his series of talks on "Bad Housing Conditions in Portsmouth," Rev. Hughes showed the relation between such conditions and immorality. He displayed pictures taken in Paradise alley, Red Row and Earlytown and quoted from the chief of police, the truant officer and the probate judge to prove his assertion that 90 per cent of the juvenile delinquents came from these congested districts.

Last week Rev. Hughes went with the chief of police to these districts and saw for himself just what conditions existed. He told of them just as he found them, without regard to the owner of the property.

On next Sunday night Rev. Hughes will talk on "Who is Responsible," and promises to tell some things at that meeting that will be of interest to all. The following Sunday night he will talk on "How May Matters Be Helped."

The address last night was especially a plea for better conditions for children. The slides that were shown had been taken under the supervision of the chief of police and showed the places where the persons frequenting the police court came from as a rule. It was also stated that most of the children in the probate court and those who are truants from school also live in these same neighborhoods. The argument was along the line that environment influences character, and more so in the case of children than in the case of adults. Illustrations were drawn from the fact that climate, rainfall, mountains, rivers, etc., determine largely the products, and the consequent industry and character of the people of any land. From an economic standpoint the civil war grew out of the fact that the South was of such a character that slavery was profitable, while it did not pay in the North.

Rev. Hughes said: "Every large city has its sections where crime and vice abound. These sections are always places of congestions, poor housing, dirty, crowded streets and few opportunities for social welfare. In Chicago, of the thousands of children that are brought into court, the vast majority come from those congested sections. The same is true of most other cities. This shows that there is a very vital relation between environment and crime.

"In Portsmouth we find the same thing is true. Last year 175 children were involved in the probate court. That means live future citizens are getting their first lessons in criminality each year in this city. And these children, nearly every one, came from such surroundings as have been described. On the testimony of the probate judge and the chief of police and the truant officer of the public schools, it was stated that at least 90 per cent of juvenile delinquency is found among children when live in such surroundings, that they are denied opportunities for normal happy child life."

One group of boys from Paradise alley was shown. These boys in answer to some queries put to them by Rev. Hughes replied that they did not play ball because they had no place to play. One family of mother of three children, one a babe in arms, was shown, who live in an alley house on Paradise alley, owned by a prominent business man of the city. The yard was filled with rubbish and water; the children were objects of pity. In other surroundings they would compare favorably with any children in the city, for they were bright little people. Children were found playing in the mud and water, hardly fit, rather dangerous at this time of the year.

Rev. Hughes stated emphatically that it is better for a city to build folks than to have stacks full factories. He said that it is not enough for Portsmouth to boast of her commercial efficiency and be indifferent towards conditions that are operating to keep many children here from normal opportunities of development.

In conclusion he stated that no one could condemn all the people living in the neighborhoods shown as being undesirable citizens. There are some of these people living in this manner because they like it, but there are a great many poor widows and wives and children who have no choice in the matter. The gilded saloons which take money from the wage earners, thus condemning the wives and children to live in poverty and squalor, while the owner of the saloon with the money thus gleaned from this poor family is enabled to live in plenty, were branded as largely to blame for making some children live in such places. The doctrine of personal liberty operates here to make people believe they can do as they please without regard to the consequences upon others.

On next Sunday evening the lecture will be, "Who is Responsible?" Some things worth hearing will be said at that time. The following Sunday evening the theme will be, "How May Matters Be Helped." At the services the united adult and children's choirs will sing "The Holy City," the song being unusual as it is sung.

Gaping Wound End Of An Argument

With an ugly knife wound in his left side, Ora Hughes, an attendant at Louis Distel's cafe, 1001 Eighth street, lies at his home on Eighth street in a serious condition, and the alleged knife-user, Joe Mowry, a painter, is at large, allegedly defying pursuit from the officers from a refuge in Kentucky.

An argument in the Distel saloon Saturday night precipitated the cutting. Hughes refused to talk with the police to throw any light on the trouble that caused the shooting and refused to file charges against his assailant.

A gaping wound, several inches long, in the left side, was inflicted on Hughes during his fight with Mowry. While Hughes was being taken to his home, Mowry made his escape, sliping through the line thrown out by the police, and crossing the river, took refuge in Kentucky.

Big Cock Fight Was Pulled Off Saturday

Reports of a big cock fight which took place in the vicinity of Ironton and which was participated in by a number of sports from Portsmouth and nearby territory last Saturday night came to light this morning, but only meagre details could be obtained, as the local contingent at the affair showed marked unwillingness to talk that all efforts of persuasion could not overcome.

It is reliably learned, however, that the attendance at the fight was one of the largest in recent years, and that a large amount of money changed hands on the different bouts. Devotees of the sport came in large numbers from southern Ohio and eastern Kentucky, and it is said that the Portsmouth delegation made a big killing. The utmost secrecy was maintained in the preparations for the fight, which passed off successfully without the slightest interference from the strong arm of the law.

Blinds Were Up, Quartet Arrested

On complaints of neighbors, who claim they have stood outside the house and watched the actions of the inmates, Officers Flowers and Nauer Sunday evening raided the home of Vida Munyon, corner of Sixteenth and Chillicothe streets, arresting Mrs. Munyon, a widow, F. Vinson, Mary Morgan and J. Baisden. The participants, it is claimed, caught the Morgan woman and Baisden in a very compromising position when they slipped into the house through an unlocked door. The thoughtlessness of not pulling the blinds in the house was responsible for the raid by neighbors, it is claimed, who stood outside for some time and watched their improper conduct. Although emphatically denying guilt in police court Monday the two of the quartet, Morgan and J. Baisden, paid $5 each on charges of disorderly conduct. They paid the fines and were released. The quartet charged Mrs. Munyon with keeping a house of ill fame, the practice of allowing people to come to her house and acting in such an indiscreet manner, especially where the neighbors were looking on.

T. [illegible] Stevens, picked up in the East End Saturday night for being drunk, entered a plea of guilty and was fined $5, which he paid.

[illegible] Daniels and George Rose, charged with train riding, pleaded guilty and were fined $1 and costs and ordered committed to the county jail until paid.

Beaten By His Brother-in-Law

[illegible] going to the home of his sister, this afternoon on Front street, Jefferson, and becoming [illegible] by using foul language, Selzor was given an unmerciful beating by his brother-in-law, Harry Scott. Officer John [illegible] then locked Selzor up on a charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct. When the time came to prosecute Selzor, his sister refused to do so, although he is said to have called her the vilest of names, and the prisoner was released.

Got "Rosy" With Police Chief

Because he got "rosy" with Police Chief Sam Phillips Saturday evening when taken to task for assaulting Walter Meadows, of Fifth street, William Brooks, a West End young man, was arrested. He was allowed to lay in jail until he sobered up and then released. No charges were preferred against him. Young Meadows is alleged to have been the victim of an unprovoked assault at the hands of Brooks.

Claims Ferret Was Used In Hunting

Do you know what a ferret is? You do not? Well, it is a small animal that is sometimes used to go into the holes where rabbits have secreted themselves and force them out into the open so Mr. Hunter can take a shot at Mr. Cottontail.

It is unlawful to use a ferret in hunting and upon the charge that he was using one of the keen-scented animals Adam Rollins, a well-known South Webster citizen, was arrested Saturday by Game Warden Callahan Smith of this city. When taken before Squire Searl, Rollins entered a plea of not guilty and he will be given a hearing this week.

This is the first violation of this feature of the game laws that has come to light in Scioto county in many years.

FREE LUNCH IN SALOONS TABOOED

No more will that species of the genus homina, the "free lunch grabber," satisfy his inner cravings at the expense of Portsmouth salonists who have been in the habit of stimulating trade by offering various food preparations free of charge, and there is weeping and wailing among this particular fraternity, all because the new order of the liquor licensing commission prohibiting the giving away of free lunch went into effect bright and early Monday morning.

All of the old regulars who have been in the habit of having a bowl of hot soup or a diversified assortment of bologna, fish, liver wurst, limburger cheese, sauer kraut and wieners and other tempting viands were disappointed when they visited their favorite thirst parlors and gazed upon the empty lunch counters that spoke more forcibly than mere words could do. "Nothing doing."

The rule was rigidly observed by all local salonists, and from all indications the day of the free lunch counter in saloons has passed. Several of the saloonists expressed a order with a feeling of relief, as they claim that [illegible] to delicacies [illegible] never favored the practice, [illegible] to follow the lead of other [illegible] their trade. An unknown burglar early Sunday evening made an unsuccessful attempt to burglarize the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. S. Clinkenbeard of Seventh street. The nocturnal visitor was frightened away before he could climb through a window. Mrs. Clinkenbeard was alone at the time, but she pluckily summoned the police, who failed to find any trace of the prowler.

Barbers Will Elect Officers For Year

Officers for the coming year will be elected at the regular meeting of the Journeymen Barbers' union, to be held in the Central Labor Union hall on West [illegible] evening of this week. Nominations were made at the November meeting, and these are: President, for two principal officers, president and secretary.

Legislative [illegible] will be voted upon for president, namely, Albert Eckstein, Fritz Dill and E. S. Robinson, while H. O. Williams, Clayton Motley and Roland Tanner are up for the secretaryship. Dill and Williams are candidates for re-election to the offices of president and secretary, respectively. No opposition has been [illegible] to the candidacies of Walter Russell for vice president, Charles Russell for treasurer and Hayes Evans for guard.

The resolutions introduced at the last meeting providing that all shops in the city must close at [illegible] o'clock through the week and [illegible] o'clock on Saturday, will be up for its second reading. Considerable opposition has appeared to this resolution, and it is most likely that it will be voted down if acted upon at this meeting.

Polite Burglar Made Own Coffee

Would you consider it a pleasing occasion to enter your home and find a stranger seated at your dining room table enjoying a steaming hot cup of coffee? Of course you wouldn't. Neither did Mrs. William Jefferson of Gay street Sunday morning.

Going to the home of a neighbor, who had been ill, she did not return home for an hour. When she did she a surprise awaited her as she found a poorly dressed man drinking a cup of coffee, which he had warmed up himself. There was nothing timid or bashful about the intruder as he thanked Mrs. Jefferson for the position and politely bowed his way out of the rear door, which he had entered. The stranger sincerely informed Mrs. Jefferson not to make an outcry, that he was only hungry and would not harm her or anything in the home.

The last seen of the visitor he was walking briskly in Gay street, the hot coffee adding a little elasticity to his step.

Cincinnati Was "Dry" On Sunday

[illegible] the saloons in Cincinnati were closed good and tight Sunday," said Walter Gray, a N. & W. employe, who returned upon the Queen City Monday.

Not a saloon opened its doors to thirsty ones with parched throats had to have their thirst satisfied elsewhere. Cincinnati saloons opened in Covington or Newport. The Cincinnati saloonists have agreed to remain closed on Sunday and Cincinnati will be "dry" on the Sabbath for the first time in several decades," said Mr. Gray, who was called to Cincinnati to attend the funeral of a relative.

Rudy's License Is Here; He's Happy

Rudolph Kountz, the New Boston soft drink, heaved a sigh of relief Saturday afternoon, when a letter from the State Licensing Board enclosing a duplicate license for his place was delivered to him by the county board. With the precious slip of paper in his possession Mr. Kountz took the first car for New Boston and again opened his place for business.

Mr. Kountz had provided himself with a frame in the meantime, and [illegible] license will be carefully guarded to prevent a repetition of the occurrence of last Thanksgiving Day, when the original license mysteriously disappeared. Upon orders from the State Board, his place was ordered closed until he had received a duplicate license.

Mr. Kountz scoffs at the idea that the license was stolen, and is of the opinion that it fell to the floor and was swept out with other dust and rubbish and carried by the porter.

Postpone Meeting

Owing to the absence from the city of Dr. S. P. Fetter, president of the board of health, the regular monthly meeting of the board, scheduled for this afternoon, has been postponed until Wednesday afternoon. Several important matters are to be discussed aside from the routine business, chief of which is the supplementary report to be made by Dr. Walter Daehler, city milk inspector, on conditions of the dairies throughout the city and county.

R. A. Gilliam, who travels for the Excelsior Shoe company, will arrive home tonight from a three months' trip through the middle west.

TOOTHACHE, NEURALGIA

For toothache, dip a piece of cotton in St. Jacobs Oil and deposit in the hollow of the aching tooth. Also rub it on the gums. Instant relief follows. For Neuralgia rub St. Jacobs Oil right on the "pain spot" whether the face, neck or any part of the body and by the time you count fifty the neuralgia misery and pain disappears.

Get a small trial bottle from any drug store and get instant relief from toothache and neuralgia. Don't suffer! This old-time penetrating oil is harmless, doesn't burn or discolor the skin and never disappoints.

Charity Ball Will Be Held Tonight

Tonight marks the opening of Kendall's hall, famous for its brilliant affairs and notable assemblages of past years, as a dance room when scores of couples will whirl away the hours of the evening dancing for every charity. After this week it becomes a portion of the new and elegant home of the Hanson Furniture company, and lovers of the terpsichorean art will know it no more.

Carl Hanson, the new owner of the building, decided some time ago to donate the hall for a Charity Ball as a fitting close to its unmatched existence and tonight the big affair is scheduled to take place. Workmen started early Sunday morning and labored throughout the day and evening to put the floor in shape and to clean the place. Mr. Hanson and his associates will be in charge of the music and will be in tiptop condition for the dancing hour.

Dancing will begin at 8:30 o'clock, the Gaeto Trio furnishing the music. The grand march, led by Mayor Fred N. Peters, will start promptly at ten o'clock, at which time it is expected that the floor will be crowded with dancers.

An admission fee of twenty five and five cents will be charged, the entire proceeds to be donated to charity. Mr. Hansen will appoint a committee of three representative charitable people of the city this evening to decide how the money shall be appropriated. It is hoped to realize a tidy sum out of the ball, as all of the expenses will be borne by Mr. Hanson and his associates.

World Series Games At Columbia Theatre

Lovers of baseball will no doubt tax the seating capacity of the popular Columbia theatre tonight and Tuesday. There the world's series games between the Philadelphia Athletics and the New York Giants will be shown. The films are great, and remember they will be shown here this week and Cincinnati next week, which shows the management of the Columbia is keeping abreast of the times.

It will be well worth the price of admission to see the conference between Managers McGraw of the Giants and Connie Mack of the White Elephants. Then you will be privileged to meet the great Christy Mathewson face to face and secure a good look at Big Chief Bender, the noted Indian twirler, who helped to blast the hopes of the Giants. Eddie Plank will also be one of the notables shown in the films, of which there will be 2,000 feet, every inch being as clear and distinct as a bell. You will be compelled to "get in the game," so life-like will be the scenes that set the fans of this continent on needles in early October.

The game will be played just as it was enacted on the Polo grounds or at Shibe field. Be sure and come early as seats will be at a premium. There will be no waits between the different pictures as two machines will be used to throw the games on the mirror screen.

Incidentally, watch out for the announcement concerning a wonderful feature that the Columbia will soon have for its patrons. It will be the biggest hit ever scored in the local motion picture world.

MISS REED'S LAST TALK TUESDAY NIGHT

Tuesday evening at 7:15 Miss Molly Jane Reed will give her last address on Bible School questions and will close the series in a recital on Wednesday evening. It is doubtful if Portsmouth ever heard a series of addresses by a lady who measured up to the high standard set by this talented young woman. The lecture Tuesday evening is free to everyone. Miss Reed has spoken to constantly increasing audiences. This is the supreme test of merit.

She will give her regular lyceum recital Wednesday evening.

OBITUARY

B. W. Lanman

Barnes W. Lanman an aged resident of Waverly, and brother of Senator G. F. Lanman, of Bear Creek, died Saturday night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. George Best, of Hill's Office, from complications of diseases caused by old age. His death was the result hastened by the loss of his wife, who died at Waverly six weeks ago.

Since the death of his wife, he resided and made his home with his daughter in Chillicothe, but he never fully recovered from the grief occasioned by her loss, and slowly grew weaker until the end came.

Mr. Lanman was one of the pioneer residents of Waverly, and was one of its most highly respected of its citizens. For several years he conducted the leading blacksmith shop in the city but retired from active work a few years ago. He was a devout member of the Waverly Methodist Church and until incapacitated by illness and old age, was one of its most active members.

The deceased was a veteran of the civil war, having served with honor and credit as a member of Co. [illegible], 91st O. V. I. Besides his brother, Senator Lanman of this city, he is survived by a sister, Mrs. Sarah Hesson, of Waverly, a daughter, Mrs. George Best of Chillicothe, and a son in the far West. The general arrangements have not been announced, but the body will be brought to Waverly for interment beside that of his wife.

M. R. Ronay.

W. R. Ronay, of the firm of Weinstock & Ronay, received a cablegram Monday from Budapest, Hungary, announcing the sudden death of his father, M. R. Ronay, who was 63 years old. Mr. Ronay's mother, Mrs. Rosie Ronay, is living and she will shortly celebrate her 103rd birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Barbara E. Kates

Her life's work completed and happy in the knowledge of the Master's work well done, Mrs. Barbara E. Kates, wife of Squire J. N. Kates, passed away Saturday evening shortly before mid-night at her home at Rarden. Mr. Klingman, at 1 o'clock this afternoon and the Rev. Mr. Landon were immediate relatives near and dear to her. The funeral was conducted in Greenlawn. The remains were accompanied by Mrs. Philip Klingman and Albert Klingman, mother and brother of the deceased. Mrs. Fred Neill of Zanesville, Mrs. Will Klingman and son Philip, of Chicago, and Mrs. Josephine Klingman, wife of Mr. Klingman. Several of the leading furniture dealers of Grand Rapids accompanied Mr. Klingman's body to its last resting place.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Letters should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Miss Wise:—I am a working girl eighteen years old. There is a married man that lives close to my home. He goes to work the same time I do of a morning and insists in walking a square with me. I told him I didn't want to walk with him and I was going to cross the street, so he followed me. Now Miss Wise, I am a poor girl, and I don't expect to have my character ruined by walking with a married man nor my hair pulled by his wife. Now what would you advise me to do to make him stop it. I told my gentleman friend about it and he told me to quit work for awhile, but I don't see how I can, for I need the money.

A NICE PORTSMOUTH GIRL.

If I were you I would wait until the man starts to work before you start. Let him get out of your sight before you leave the house. Or you might start earlier than he does. You could also take a different route if there is any. If you can't find any other way just give him to understand that he can't walk along the street with you. Get mad and give him a piece of your mind. You have to do this once in a while, when people can't take a gentle hint that their company isn't wanted.

Dear Dolly:—I am a girl of 16. One night not long ago I let a boy come home with me and he tried to put his arm around me, but I remembered your advice and gave him to understand that I would not allow any boy to take such privileges with me. He apologized for having acted so. Do you think he just wanted to find out what kind of a girl I was?

TOUCH-ME-NOT.

That might have been his object, but in any case he displayed the fact that he is no gentleman. You did perfectly right. I wish all girls would do likewise.

Dear Miss Wise:—Will you kindly tell me where I can get a feather mattress made, also how to wash an all-wool white sweater. Can you wash wool felt pennants. Thanking you for your reply.

D. C.

I do not know of any place here where they make feather mattresses. Wash your sweater with wool soap and lukewarm water, rinse and gently squeeze the water out. Do not wring coat. Place in pan in warm oven or on oven door, but you will have to watch it carefully and keep turning it over in pan so it will dry evenly. If the sun was warm enough you could put it in a pillow slip and hang in sun to dry. I think you ought to be able to wash pennants although I have never tried to wash any.

Answer to Bertline:—If you were the cause of your falling out it would be all right to make up with him, but don't seem too anxious to do so. Just be as pleasant as possible when you see him and he will come around all right when he gets over his pouting spell.

Dear Miss Wise: Should a lady walk ahead of the gentleman when going on a train?

JANE.

The lady should go first. Help her up the steps by the man.

Dear Miss Wise: How can I make my eyes smaller?

BIG EYES.

Leave your eyes alone, if you try to do anything to them you will likely injure them for all time to come. You must be a very foolish girl to want to monkey with perfectly good eyes.

Dear Miss Wise:—I have great large black, dreamy eyes, and a wealth of black hair, and a lovely complexion; am I pretty?

VANITY FAIR.

"Pretty is as pretty does." Any girl is pretty who is sweet and lovable and whose first thoughts are for others and not herself.

Dear Miss Wise:—Would like to have your suggestion about a new fall overcoat. I am going to get a new one, but am undecided whether to get black or gray. I have a new blue suit. Which would look best.

A MERE MAN.

Get a dark blue Chinchilla and have it made with a belt.

Dear Miss Wise: I have light hair and dark brown eyes. What colors should I wear? I have a girl friend who has dark hair and blue eyes. What color dresses should she wear.

KITTY.

You can wear any shade of blue or brown and your friend King's blue, tan or red.

Dear Miss Wise: After a girl receives a letter from her boy friend, how long should she wait before she answers it?

GERTIE.

If he is a very good friend you might answer it in a day or two. Do not wait longer than a week.

Two Dot, Montana, Dear Miss Wise:—I am nine years old and am in the third grade. Should I be in any higher grade or not? Your little friend.

E. W. W.

I think you are getting along very nicely, Little Friend.

Dear Miss Wise: Is it proper to thank people when they say they are "glad to have met you."

BLUE BELL.

You might tell them it is a mutual pleasure.

Dear Miss Wise: A girl friend of mine is going to be married soon. She has asked me and a boy friend to stand up with them. They are going on the train to another town to be married. Who should pay the expenses? Should the bridesmaid offer to pay her own fare?

ANXIOUS GIRL.

The bridesmaid will have to pay her own fare unless the best man would like to pay it for both her and himself. Why not prevail upon your friend to be married right here in Portsmouth. I don't like the idea of girls going away to get married.

Dear Miss Wise: What is good for oily hair?

DORA.

Wash it about every two weeks with warm water and Castile soap.

Dear Miss Wise: I am going with a young man and I like him real well, but other girls, even my sister, are jealous. What can I do to keep them from him as he seems to like me the best?

MAGDA.

Why should you mind the other girls if he likes you best? As long as he likes you best he will prefer you, but if he doesn't, you don't want him to pretend, do you?

Dear Miss Wise: How an I make a boy in school leave me alone without telling the teacher?

STUDIOUS KID.

Kindly ask the teacher to change your seat, and if she will not, tell her the truth.

REQUESTED RECIPES

(By Miss Dolly Wise)

Chocolate Pie

Bake a shell of rich pastry dough, and use as filling one and one-half tablespoonfuls corn starch dissolved in one-fourth cup cold water, yolk of one egg, butter the size of walnut, one cup sugar, one and one-half cups boiling water, one tablespoonful of chocolate dissolved in hot water, one teaspoonful vanilla. Boil like custard. Beat the white of egg for top of pie, after which sprinkle with cocoanut.

This makes one pie.

Mock Duck

Make a dressing of one quart bread crumbs, two large onions, salt, pepper and sage to taste and two tablespoons melted butter. Have ready two pounds of round steak cut thick and in one piece. Spread the dressing on meat, and make into roll. Tie the roll firmly together. Bake in the oven with small strips of bacon on top of the roll. If the housekeeper wishes to go to church Sunday morning, this makes a splendid substitute for Sunday roasts, as it may be left in oven with very slow fire for a few hours and be nicely done upon return.

Fruit Cake

Two and one-fourth cups flour, one and one-half cups sugar, one cup butter, one cup raisins, three eggs, one half cup sour milk, one cup walnuts, one teaspoon soda, cloves, cinnamon, nutmeg to taste.

Oyster Fricassee

Into a tablespoonful of melted butter sizzling in a frying pan put a pint of drained oysters. Cook until plump and drain again. Pour the oyster liquor into a cup and fill with sweet cream. Cook a few minutes. Dredge flour with one of butter, pour in the cream and oyster liquor, add pepper and salt. Beat an egg light, pour the oyster sauce upon it, add the oysters and return to the frying pan to be well heated but not to boil. Stir gently all the time to insure even cooking. Serve in pastry shells or on toast.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Are A Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a substitute for calomel and are a wonder. But are laxative and their action on the liver is almost [illegible] They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to poison [illegible] and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out this little olive colored tablet. These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

The Bunny Hug

Is another one of our new shoes that has been particularly pleasing to ladies who want a stylish walking shoe.

The Bunny Hug is one of the new broad toes, low heel, hand welted and the arch is just the right height to protect the foot that has been the complaint of some of the new styles.

Made of dull leather in two grades, fitted to the foot as well as fit them, it makes an ideal walking shoe.

SAYS RELIGION HAS TOO MUCH OF BRASS BAND IN IT TODAY

A large crowd journeyed to the First Presbyterian church Sunday to listen to the second in a series of ten sermons by The Commandments by the Rev. John Wesley Hanning. In spite of the unfavorable weather the auditorium was comfortably filled and the closest attention was given to the words of the speaker.

Dancing chose for the subject of his second sermon, "Dancing and Worldly Religion," he took his text from the second of the commandments. He said:

"Jesus says that when the first and second commandments are in the whole earth from Genesis to Revelation. And well it might. They deal with the most sacred theme in the universe, the character and name of God.

"We are living today our sense of fear of God—the reverential fear—we bow in awe before Him. The commandments are to remind us that we are to be approached with reverence. Irreverence is one of the sins of the present day. Traditions, with age, are cast aside and serious offences are taken in light hearted fashion at will. We practice familiarity about performances before which angels fall in silent awe.

"The commandments are directed against false worship. The idolatry mentioned is the use of a false worship. We have offered strange fire from the second commandments. He said:

WANDERS IN DARK; KILLED BY A TRAIN

Leaving the little hut on High street which he called home, Robert C. Trent, aged 57, spent Saturday evening down town. Early Sunday morning his dead body was found alongside the N. & W. tracks near the Heer Engine Co.'s plant by the crew of an incoming train.

His skull was fractured and his head bore multiple scalp lacerations. His back and shoulders were bruised as if the body had been dragged.

Mystery shrouding the death led the officials, at first, to scent foul play. This theory was generally dispelled later following a closer investigation and Coroner O. W. Robe rendered a verdict of accidental death, supposedly caused by being struck by a Norfolk & Western train.

Beckham Seems To Be The Favorite

Former Governor J. C. W. Beckham seems to have the lead over his opponents for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator from Kentucky in the eastern portion of the state, judging from the reports that have been received by the Enquirer correspondent who has made a careful survey of the situation. Beckham's friends claim that Beckham is in a good lead all over the state, with Congressman Stanley second in the race.

In the list of counties heard from during the past week were Greenup, Lewis and Rowan, all of which are close enough to Portsmouth to create considerable interest in this city. The Enquirer says:

"Beginning the counting at this time of the candidates for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator were this week received from 30 counties, making a total of 60 counties, just one half the number in the state, heard from. Former Governor J. C. W. Beckham is ahead with the lead in 40 counties, while Congressman A. O. Stanley is accorded first rank in 12 counties, Governor James B. McCreary in 6 and former Congressman David H. Smith in one."

Among the counties reported were:

Greenup 1175. The lead of the people at the present time is Beckham, Stanley second and McCreary third. Smith is practically unknown in this section and not mentioned.

Lewis, pop. Stanley has the lead. There is not much difference be-

O. S. U. Students Form Organization

The students and ex-students of the Ohio State University held an interesting meeting at the high school building Saturday evening. The 20th day of November has been set apart as for the students and ex-students throughout the world to assemble together and rehearse their college days, and use their influence in the interest of this great institution of learning. The state has been divided into districts, and organizations are supposed to be effected in each of these districts. Scioto and Adams counties are in one district, and this was the first meeting held.

The matter was taken up late, and the weather bad, causing the attendance to be much smaller than it would have been had the information that such a meeting would be held had greater circulation.

About thirty of the students and their friends were present, however, and they not only effected a permanent organization, but had a good time, which gave encouragement for a larger attendance and a greater time next year.

The committee having the affair in charge were Mrs. Dan H. Thomas, who was at one time a teacher in the Ohio State University, Miss Terese Kennedy, Will C. Hadelock, Dr. O. D. Tatje and Philip Jacobs.

While the banquet tables were being prepared by the Ladies Aid Society of Bigelow church, the party gathered in the assembly parlors and sang the songs and gave the yells of college days, such as the "Ole Seattle Rag," "Come boys and make it a win boys,

Ohio State has got to win.

Fight boys, with all your might boys,

You'll bring the victory in.

Remember we are all behind you,

We are cheering to remind you,

Wa-hoo, Ru-Zip, Ba-zoo,

Ohio State depends on you,

And is proud of you."

The supper was served in one of the class rooms, the hall was illuminated with red candles and with flowers, while the walls of the room were decorated with the colors, and Ohio State pennants.

When the feasting was concluded, Will C. Hadelock, as toastmaster, called on Philip Jacobs to read the letter from President W. O. Thompson, of the Ohio State. Mr. Jacobs, in his reading at the time, added a few very appropriate remarks. The next speaker called was Dr. Hosmer Scott, pastor of Trinity church, and he soon threw down the bars of formality, and all started in for a good time.

Maurice Briggs was asked to tell something about college athletics and he comes pretty near knowing all about it. He gave a vivid description of the wild time the Ohio State students had in the night shirt parade down High street Columbus, the week before, rejoicing over their victory over the Northwestern in a foot ball game.

Mr. Briggs was followed by Mrs. E. F. Ridenour, Miss Laura Brannon, Fred Thomas, Mrs. Harry W. Miller, Arnold Schupine, Mrs. Dan H. Thomas, Dr. O. D. Tatje, Otto Blair, Miss Terese Kennedy, Robert Padan and Carl Hauck, all these were students or ex-students, and they gave some interesting experiences of their college days, indicating that it will be possible for them ever to forget.

H. S. Cline was then called on and he talked for a few minutes on the good opportunities this organization had to do good work for the rising generation, and the Ohio State, calling attention to the fact that the O. S. U. must look to the schools of the state to increase the attendance in the future and wound up by reading a letter from Governor Cox, in which he said he was in the schools of this state and such organizations as this should give Governor Cox and those interested all the encouragement they can.

Miss Mary Ann E. Jones, a Greek scholar, called on Dr. Scott to tell students and encouraged the good work they were doing.

On motion of Dr. Scott the following committee was appointed to select officers for a permanent organization: Miss Terese Kennedy, Maurice Briggs and Ralph Magelson. With these report the following officers were elected, to perfecting a permanent organization: President, Mrs. Dan H. Thomas; Vice President, Miss Terese Kennedy; Secretary and Treasurer, Will C. Hadelock. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Ridenour, Dr. and Mrs. O. D. Tatje, Dr. Herbert Scott, Mrs. Harry W. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Will C. Hadelock, Mr. and Mrs. Dan H. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Godsch, Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Tucker, Miss Terese Kennedy, Miss Laura Brannon, Miss Mary Pursel, Arnold Schupine, Carl Thomas, Maurice Briggs, Otto Blair, Robert Padan, Carl Hauck, Ralph Martin, Philip Jacobs and H. S. Cline.

Flag Raising Was Enjoyable Event

Quite a number of members of the Daughters of America of this city attended the flag raising exercises at McDermott Saturday afternoon, under the auspices of the D. of A. lodge of that place. The occasion was the presentation of a large 5x12 silk floating flag to the McDermott public schools by the McDermott Daughters of America.

Participating in the exercises besides the D. of A. were the Junior O. U. A. M. the teachers and the pupils of the school. The flag was raised to the top of a large pole, 60 feet in height, amid the plaudits of a large crowd. Mrs. Ruth Arnold of Toledo, state councilor of the D. of A., delivered the presentation address, response to which was made by Mrs. Perry Waller, principal of the McDermott schools.

Following the exercises a supper was served at the school building, receipts from which amounted to $35, which will be devoted to the purchase of new Bibles. One of these Bibles will be placed in each grade of the McDermott schools.

With Old Jupe weeping bitterly and the atmosphere dripping with moisture, P. E. Seaman, 730 Sixth street, discovered some one had relieved him of his rain coat. ## PULLED SKUNK OUT OF HOLE

To pull a polecat out of a hole is folly. Patrolman Bob Ray contests to this as he is carrying around a lacerated finger as the result of a vindictive skunk sinking its teeth in the digit. The patrolman, who has been enjoying his vacation, has returned from a rather successful hunt in the eastern part of the county.

Relatives Believe Trent Was Murdered

That Robert C. Trent, aged man found dead alongside the N. & W. tracks near the Heer Engine Works, Sunday morning, was the victim of an atrocious murder instead of being killed by an N. & W. train, is the opinion of R. G. Morris, his son-in-law of 2221 Grant street, and a N. & W. railroad conductor of 22 years' experience on the road.

Mr. Morris' opinion is shared by a number of others who have made an examination of the wounds which caused his death, and the authorities will be asked to make a thorough investigation and if possible, bring the murderer to justice. He himself will endeavor during the next few days to obtain further light on the circumstances surrounding his tragic death, the full nature of which investigation he will give to the authorities. Relatives say Trent had been threatened by men under him.

Mr. Morris bases his theory on the nature of the wounds on the dead man's body which he claims could not have been caused by being struck by a train. The most serious injury, and the one which no doubt caused his death was a fracture of the skull above the left eye, yet there is not the slightest abrasion of the skin at this particular point. Mr. Morris claims that in his 22 years of experience on the road, during which time he has viewed the bodies of hundreds who have been injured by trains, he has never known of a case in which the skin was not badly lacerated. Another reason advanced is that not a bone was broken in the fall, which is unusual for an accident such as that of which is alleged to have caused his death.

He inclines to the belief that Trent was struck a deadly blow on the head with a sandbag or some other weapon which would crush the skull without inflicting a flesh wound, and the more he considers the matter the more he is convinced that his theory is the most logical.

Robbery could not be assigned as the motive as the valuable gold watch belonging to the dead man was undisturbed when his body was found. He had but little money in his possession when he left the house.

The only motive that could have actuated the act was one of revenge, and this is the most accepted reason put forth. Mr. Morris says that his father-in-law had often told him that there were a few men who were jealous of him because of the position he held as foreman for Cecil S. Miller, and that he feared they would attack him at some time. Whether their jealousy could prompt them to the extent of murder is problematical, but Mr. Morris thinks such a thing could be possible. Unfortunately, the aged man never told his son-in-law who the men were who envied him his position.

Morris was last seen alive in the vicinity of where he was found dead by W. H. Shields, an N. & W. engineer.

Mr. Morris will insist on a thorough investigation of the case and developments are expected within the next day or so.

SUPERIOR CO. CASE SETTLED

Cincinnati, O., Dec. 1.—A decision of the U. S. court today favored Mrs. Frances H. Williams and Mrs. D. Gregory Wilder, of Ironton, in the consolidated U. S. Superior Portland Cement Company, Colorado case upon the validity of a $2,000 bond issued. Judge Hollister upheld the validity of the bond issue in question; that the company was prosperous and there was no need of a receiver; that Dustin Cole has should be removed as receiver and one named by the court should take upon the affairs at Ironton among the stockholders.

Officer Edward Sidley was unable to report for duty Sunday night owing to illness.

COLONEL GOETHALS, PANAMA CANAL CHIEF

If John Purroy Mitchell, mayor of New York, has asked Colonel Goethals, the big boss of the Panama Canal, to become police commissioner of New York City under the administration which will begin with the new year, there has been nothing to indicate that the colonel would take the place.

Few of Colonel Goethal's army friends believe he would accept. They think that it is not only too small for him, but is of such a nature that he could not possibly do credit to himself. It is generally recognized that there are two important positions in New York from which no one can come forth with glory—mayor and police commissioner. No mayor since John T. Hoffman has been elected to a higher office.

DEMENTED, TRIES TO KILL HERSELF

An indictment in money was filed in probate court Monday afternoon against Lucella Bane, who lives on Sixth street just below Court. Mrs. Bane has not been right mentally for some time, but Monday afternoon, however, she attempted suicide by locking herself in her room and turning on a gas jet. The family soon detected escaping gas and learning that she was in the room they broke open the door and stopped the well laid plans. It was then thought best to have her placed where she could be properly cared for, and this was done. A lunacy will be had later and she will be sent to the Athens asylum.

National Leader Will Discuss Home Site

George Dirrs, district manager of the Woodmen of the World, with headquarters in this city, has received a letter from Dr. G. H. Schlitz, of Omaha, National President of the W. O. W., and personal representative of Sovereign Commander Root, stating that he would arrive in Portsmouth some time this week to discuss the proposition of a resolution the National Home of the W. O. W. in Portsmouth.

From the tone of his letter it would appear that Portsmouth has an excellent chance of landing the Home, and it only remains for an agreement to be reached as to the conditions to be complied with to make the Peerless City a termination contender for the prize.

Tango, Etc. Barred At Local Dance

Quite a sensation was caused by the action of the committee in charge of the U. C. T. dance in the Club last Saturday evening, in taking to task prominent members of the younger society set for indulging everything from the tango to the "cradle Rock." The dancers were told that such movements would not be permitted in the dance, and they won't have to adhere more closely to the homeless waltz and two-step movements, if they wished to continue dancing.

The warning had the desired effect, although it aroused considerable opinion among the devotees of the gayer forms of dancing.

Briggs Praised By Columbus Citizen

The Columbus Citizen, in its selection of an All-Ohio team, has nothing to say about Maurice Briggs, local boy who was placed at left halfback on its All-Star Ohio team.

Briggs is first choice. He has given Pierce of Miami. He is fast on his feet, however, and has much nerve per pound of any that ever wore a football suit. All tenants belong to him. He ripped through all of them. On the other hand, was stopped by Reserve and Oberlin. Pierce is, however, a bear on half and a wonderful kicker. His feat of booting four field goals against Denison is seldom equaled.

The Cleveland press took four players from O. S. U. for its All-Star team, and Briggs was placed at quarter back.

Captain Geissman and Briggs of Ohio State landed places on the All Ohio eleven that Tom Terrell picked for the Cleveland Leader. Willaman, Graf and Kiefer are on his second team.

Judge Blair appeared for Mrs. Herms and Harry W. Miller for Mr. York. The court took the case under advisement.

Judge Blair and Mr. Miller engaged in quite verbal warfare for a few moments and enlivened matters in the court room in no small way. Several times it looked as though they would be called down by the court as they became quite strenuous in their arguments.

Three other feature acts and good pictures will complete the bill.

GEN. SHERWOOD NOW OWNS JUDITH WILKES

The last issue of the "Horse Journal" says:

"The handsome trotting mare, Judith Wilkes 2:16¼, was purchased Saturday by General Isaac R. Sherwood, of Toledo, from George McCrea, of Washington C. H., Ohio, the latter purchasing her at the recent Washington C. H. sale, the former shipping her by express Monday morning to Washington D. C., where she will be used to pole. The price was not given out. General Sherwood, who spends most of his time in the Capital City, is very fond of pole driving and always has in his possession a pair of high-class trotters or pacers. In securing Judith Wilkes he undoubtedly owns one of the handsomest trotting mares that was ever raced on the half-mile tracks of the Buckeye state. She is of good size, frictionless gaited, has abundant speed and has won blues in the show ring. Her breeding is superb, being a daughter of Jim Wilkes 2:15¼ from Tribly R., by Strathdean.

"She was raced for two seasons with marked success by Andy Ault, who formerly resided at Portsmouth, and last spring was sent by her owner, H. S. Grimes, of Portsmouth, to Oscar Vallery, proprietor of Sylvan Park Farm, Derby, Ohio, but she trained off after Vallery started her a few times, being a close second to Madam Queen at Lima in 2:14¼, fifth heat. She looked after this race like one of the best candidates for the 2:17 trotting events on the half-mile tracks for the season, but she lost her form and was sent to the Vallery farm, where she remained until the Washington C. H. sale, when she was secured by Mr. McCrea. No doubt General Sherwood has made a wise selection in purchasing Judith Wilkes for pole use and it is not known what he will mate her with."

Enjoy Great Time At Boys' Convention

(By Dave Williams)

Lostoria, O., Nov. 30, 1913.

(Special to Times.)

Great! Is just the right adjective to use in describing the Y. M. C. A. boys' conference at Fostoria, which began on Friday last and will close tonight (Sunday). Our Portsmouth delegation, which consisted of W. H. F. Kinsey, Brooden Hudson, Carey Williams, Russell Williams, Harry Phillips, Curtis Avers, Curtis Bellamy, Clifford Zellars and Dave Williams, left Portsmouth Friday morning at 8:20, arriving at Fostoria at noon. All the way our train was picking up delegations of boys and their secretaries, and by the time we reached Fostoria we had hundreds of boys in our crowd, all a merry bunch, not giving their songs and yells.

The opening gun of the convention was the big parade of the delegates at 1:30 p. m. It was an inspiring sight, indeed, to see this band of America's coming manhood in line, 900 strong.

The big banquet came at 6:30 p. m. It was big, too, not only from a standpoint of "eats," but in many other ways. Mr. Gavin, the host, the various delegations were singing their songs and giving their yells.

Then came the speech making. The first toast was to the Y. M. C. A. and was by Mr. James Whitmore and Dr. Fisher, two of the strongest men in Y. M. C. A. work. It is said that Dr. Fisher knows more boys than any other man in America.

A great program was on Saturday, At 8:30 a. m. a very helpful devotional service was led by Dr. Ernest Allen, of Toledo. The main address of the morning was by Mr. A. H. Lichty, Y. M. C. A. state secretary. His subject was, "Why a Boy Should Go to College."

Then came reports from each delegation, which were very interesting, as we got a glimpse of Y. M. C. A. work on every field of the state. We are glad to say Portsmouth had a report which we did not to be ashamed of. These reports were given by the boys themselves.

The afternoon session consisted of a series of discussions of vital subjects to the boys' department of the Y. M. C. A. Some of the subjects were: "What Kind of Religious Work Around Us?" "What Can the Y. M. C. A. do for the Social Life of the Boys?" "How Best Interest High School Boys in Bible Study?" These discussions were by the boys and their leaders.

At 5:30 all the boys were banqueted at the Westwood Hotel. While our boys, Mr. Kinsey and Mr. Williams, were kept busy in the interest in Portsmouth boys in the place of interest in Fostoria.

Mr. James Whitmore, of New York, was the speaker at the Sunday night session and gave a superb address.

The Sunday program will consist of two big mass meetings for boys.

The entire nine delegates from Portsmouth will close with Mr. Charles Plum, a former citizen of Portsmouth, also residing in Fostoria and engaged in a profession business.

We will return to Portsmouth Monday, arriving at 11:45 a. m.

It's the greatest gathering of men we ever attended, and every boy in our delegation has been helped.

Changes Positions

Floyd Barr, a former Portsmouth boy, has resigned his position as stenotypist on the Springfield, Ohio, News, and is gone to Dayton to accept a similar position on the Journal, where his brother Arthur is employed. He is a brother of Grover Barr of the Times composing room.

Dr. Goodwin at home and ready for business. adv-1-2

On the West Side.

Dr. W. D. Trumper, Dr. Hoe and Williamson and Richard Trumper spent Sunday on the West Side, keeping in touch with conditions on their respective farms.

Boosts Y. W. C. A. County Fair, Dec. 4-5.

SALLY WRITES TO PA AND MA

Well wife I've got the letter and it's writ to Pa and Ma,
An' I've left the team a standin' at the gate until I saw
What our Sally had to tell us, can you open it my dear?
'Pears as like the winds has somehow numbed my fingers up this year.
Here's my glasses, I can read it, Sally's jes' the heaten'st gal,
'Pears as though upon her letters I can see her sunny smile.
"Portsmouth, Ohio, Nov. 29th, Dear Pa and Ma, We're preparin' for the biggest County Fair you ever saw."
County Fair? Now what's the child a drivin' at, do you suppose?
I've never heerd of anything in town exceptin' shows.
"You know I've been a stayin' at the Y. W. C. A.,
And its just the grandest place, 'cept home for girls to stay."
Yes, wife, that's so, our Sally's safe, as safe as in our cave,
An it's saved us many a worry to know that she is there
"We're divided in committees and just think I am on one,
Your little loving Sally, and there's so much to be done;
And our girls, the Selby girls, will give a Pantomime"
Now, wife, what's that, I reckon though we'll have to go an' see,
For Sally says if we will come, she'll pay for you and me.
"And the girls that's in the Gym will give the finest exhibition,
I'm one of them, we do so much, all for 5 cents admission.
The Camp Fire Girls,"—well wife that sounds for all like soldierin' days,
"Will all be there and show you much of interest 'bout their ways.
The Drew Club and the Business Girls, oh! all the girls, you know,
Are doing just their best to make the 'County Fair' a go.
Oh yes, they're going to sell things, too, things that the girls have made,
So wait to buy for Xmas till you see what we've displayed.
I'd like to tell you more, but then I know you'll come to see.
For, Dear Pa and Ma, you wouldn't think of disappointing me.
Don't mind the weather for 'twill be at Damarin hall and say,
We've rented this hall for our Gym Y. W. C. A
Well I must close with love to all and please won't you remember,
Our County Fair will be the 4th and 5th days of December"
Goodbye, we'll be sure to meet
At the corner of Court and Second street

SALLY.

REV. LANGHORNE WILL SPEAK IN NEW YORK

The Kendall Avenue Baptist minister, Rev. Paul Langhorne, has been honored in being called to New York City to speak several times at the National Conference of the Daily Vacation Bible Schools.

Before coming to our city Rev. Langhorne was teacher, principal, then superintendent of the Philadelphia Baptist schools. This past summer he and his wife conducted a very successful school at his church with an average attendance of over one hundred children, under the age of 11 years for five weeks during July and August.

The work is being recognized throughout our country to be one of the best channels in the great work of conserving the boys and girls of our cities through which the churches may co-operate.

These schools are entirely new in Ohio and in all likelyhood Rev. Langhorne will at this conference be selected as the Ohio State director by the National Board of Directors. He will then start a campaign to have the churches in our larger cities open the doors during the summer months to the idle children, giving idle students and teachers opportunity to direct the work in this field of social service.

Portsmouth Masons Cross "Hot Sands"

Two prominent Masons from Portsmouth, Andrew Glass and Charles L. Simms, general manager and paymaster, respectively, of the Portsmouth Steel Company, were numbered among the thirty-five candidate who were conducted across the "Hot sands" at the semi annual ceremonial session of Syrian Temple, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine of the Southern Rite Cathedral in Cincinnati, Saturday afternoon and evening.

The initiatory exercises were in charge of Potentate William Lehman, with assistant Chief Rabban W. J. Howard, Assistant Rabban C. F. Hake, Jr., and Recorder John H. Batchelor. The Arab Patrol, headed by Colonel Hake and consisted of the Oriental band directed by Dr. W. S. Locke, played a prominent part in the ceremonies.

The ceremonies opened at one o'clock Saturday afternoon with a business session, followed an hour later by a [illegible]

An elegant banquet was served at the conclusion of the initiations, after which the Nobles began a pilgrimage to the Empress theater, where the entire house had been reserved for an around show for the occasion. There was a large attendance of the Nobles and visiting Shriners, and the session was one of the most enjoyable ever held in the Queen City. Those who attended from Portsmouth besides the above named were: Harry Poole, Robert Cullen and George Wilhelm Zoumaran.

The Messrs. Zoumaran and Albert Zoumaran of this city were in attendance at the commandery session in Akron on Tuesday, Dayton, Ohio, on Friday, at which place a large class was initiated.

SANTA CLAUS LETTERS

The first Santa Claus letter of the season came into The Times office today. As has been the custom in the past, The Times will print as many of these for the little Santa believers as possible:

Dear Santa Claus:—I want a doll and a drum, sword and a fire department, house with it, boxing gloves and story books.

Billy wants a monkey that walks. Delia wants a baby buggy and a doll.

1519 Eleventh street.

Lecture On Death At The Temple

A very attentive audience at the Temple theatre listened with much interest to a discourse given by Albert Johnson of the Columbus branch I. B. S. A. upon the subject: "What Is Death, Why Is Death and Will Death Be Here, That the Declaration in Rev. 21 Be Fulfilled, Death Shall Be No More, Neither Sorrow, Nor Crying, Nor Shall There Be Any More Pain, For the Former Things Are Passed Away?" The speaker said his subject had occupied his mind for a long time, and caused our first parents to discover their nakedness, and in our day various answers are given to these questions. The answer of the first question of our subject according to the generally accepted theology of our day is that death is not death; but the entrance of Divinity into activities in other forms and conditions, that the dead are more alive than ever. This answer seems not to satisfy the minds of thinking people of our day. The speaker then defined death as being the extinction of life and to die is to pass from an animate to a lifeless state, to cease to live. Death is the opposite of life. The question was then asked "Do the Scriptures agree with the definition of death?" Many texts were then quoted to prove that there is no activity, either mental or physical in death.

In Eccl. 9:10 we read: "Whatsoever thy hands find to do do it with thy might for there's no work, nor device nor knowledge nor wisdom in the grave whither thou goest." Also in Eccl. 9:5 we read: "The living know that they shall die, but the dead know not anything." Job in 14:21 tells us that "When a man is dead his sons come to honor and he knoweth it not, and they are brought low and he perceiveth it not of them," and the Psalmist adds in Psalm 146:4, "That his breath goeth forth. He returneth to his earth and in that very day his thought perish."

All these texts agree that death is a condition of unconsciousness, and that all who have died are in the death state, the tomb.

"Why is Death?" Jesus declared that Satan is wholly responsible for the death of our race. He was the murderer of our first parents and by the laws of heredity we all lost our lives through his terrible description, when he persuaded mother Eve that God, who cannot lie, had lied. Why Is Death and Will Death Be Here, That the Declaration in Rev. 21 Be Fulfilled, Death Shall Be No More, Neither Sorrow, Nor Crying, Nor Shall There Be Any More Pain, For the Former Things Are Passed Away?" The speaker said his subject had occupied his mind for a long time, and caused our first parents to discover their nakedness, and in our day various answers are given to these questions. Word has been received from J. Gerlach, a former Wheelers bure resident, to the effect that he has moved from Clearwater, Kansas to Rose Springs, Okla. homa. # CURED TERRIBLE HUMOR ON FACE

Could Not Go On Street Without Veil. Tells What Resinol Did For Her.

Philadelphia, Dec. 6, 1912. — "In December 1908, my face became sore. I tried everything that was recommended, and my face got worse instead of better. I spent over $100 and got no benefit. The faces and nose were very red and the eruption had the appearance of small boils, which ached me terribly. I cannot tell you how terrible my face looked; all I can say is, it was disfigured, and I suffered beyond description.

"I have not gone on the street any time since 1908 without a veil, until now. Just four months ago a friend persuaded me to give Resinol a trial. I have used three cakes of Resinol Soap and less than a jar of Resinol Ointment, and my face is perfectly free from any eruption, and my skin is as clear and clean as any child's." (Signed) Mrs. M. J. Bateman, 4256 Va. St.

Every druggist sells Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap, but if you have any skin trouble it will about you nothing to try them. Send to Dept. 11-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md., for a free trial size of each.

Knights Of Grip Have A Big Time

Knights of the grip honored their ladies fair Saturday evening with an informal social function at the Club that was refreshing in its simple, but entertaining appointments. Prior to the social hour, members of the Local Council of the United Commercial Travelers conducted a brief business session, disposing of routine matters and repairing to the hall where friends and relatives awaited their coming.

It was an ideal evening spent by seventy five or eighty knights travelers and their friends and the evening blended into fond memories only too quickly.

Strains of music furnished by Bode's orchestra furnished the incentive for the everlasting dance. Delicious refreshements and a light luncheon were served by the Ladies Aid Society of the All Saints church.

NEW C. & O. SCHEDULE

The new scheduled on this division of the C. & O. went into effect Sunday. It provides for no sweeping changes in the present timecard, which is one of the eminent satisfaction. No. 16, due here at 7:25 p. m., now runs into Huntington instead of going east only as far as Russell. No. 1 goes to Cincinnati at 7:25 a. m., instead of 7:14. No. 2 and No. 2 arrive and depart at the same old time.
